WISE (Wellness Initiative for Senior Education)

Presented by REAL Services
Wednesdays 10:45am-12:15am
Sept 17-Oct 22

Are you looking for an opportunity to learn how to stay healthy and meet new people? This educational program offers 6 lessons that cover a wide range of topics:

- ♦ Learn about the aging process and how to make healthy lifestyle choices
- ♦ Celebrate this exciting stage of life and all the benefits that come with it
- ♦ Discuss risk factors and behaviors you should avoid to stay healthy
- ♦ Examine how alcohol and medications affect seniors differently and how you can avoid problems
- ♦ Learn how to use simple tools to help you feel more empowered about your health and the healthcare you receive

This is a FREE program. Sign-up required at the front desk or by calling 219-873-1504.

Football 101

With Darrell Garbacik, former Recreation Director and Superintendent of the Parks & Recreation Dept, and all-around lover of all things football!

Fri, Sept 5th at 1:00pm

It's football season again and for those Chicago Bears fans, the first game of the regular season kicks off on Mon, Sept 8th. This is the perfect opportunity to learn, or just brush up on the lingo, plays, and rules—including the newest rule on overtime plays. From touchdowns to timeouts, we'll break down football so you can enjoy the game instead of guessing. Join us for a crash course in football basics so you can watch like a pro." Please sign up at the front desk.

The Beauty of Nature & Wildlife

by Lynea Hinchman

Wed, Sept 24th at 1pm

Come spend the early afternoon with Lynea Hinchman, birder, naturalist and photographer as she takes us on a journey through the wild side of Florida. This program includes spectacular photos of birds, mammals, butterflies, dragonflies, reptiles, flowers and more.

Birding expert, Lynea Hinchman, is an authority not only of birds, but also many aspects of nature. She has birded for more than 40 years on all 7 continents. Plan to attend.

You're in for a treat!

Wed, Oct 15: "The Rise and Fall of Miss Fannie's Biscuits" at Blue Gate Theatre, Shipshewana, IN. Mysteries have a way of following Fannie Miller, so when she makes it into the finals of the Tuscarawas County Baking Contest and contestants start disappearing, she calls on her old friend Foster Bates, a retired cop and part-time private investigator. Could it be that other finalists are somehow responsible for these disappearances, thinning out the competition? Like the couple on the verge of divorce who needs the prize money, or the three Beiler sisters always in a huddle whispering. One thing is for certain—Foster and Fannie will stay on the case until the end, and everyone involved will have learned something important about baking contests, solving mysteries and life. Pkg includes transp, lunch of family style dinner, and show. Departs 8am, Returns 4:30pm. $128pp (minimum dinner gratuity included). Reserv/pymt MUST be received by 9/1

Travel Policies:

Reservation & Payment Policy: Reservations are accepted and held via phone. Booking forms (available at our front desk) are required for OVERNIGHT trips ONLY. Full payment is due in house by the due date noted. Prizes for 1st, 2nd, 3rd places.

In the event of a thunderstorm, the Elms has reserved a rain date for this event: September 10th. We look forward to having the community come out to enjoy our annual car show as we admire and reminisce down memory lane!

Director's Corner

We're still working out all the bugs in emailing our newsletters, so if you are receiving one by USPS and shouldn't be, or you aren't getting an email of the newsletter and you should be, or are having any other issues about receiving our newsletter, whatever they may be, please let us know. We'll continue to make adjustments until we get it right! In the meantime, I'd like to remind you if you haven't had your picture taken at our front desk to please do so. Also, be sure you're recording any hours that you volunteer here at the Senior Center. If you're unsure how, please ask the front desk or staff and we would be glad to help you. We're still collecting plastic Easter Eggs for the hunt in Fedder's next year sponsored by the City. So if you see them out at garage sales, or want to donate some that you no longer need, feel free to bring them in. I think that's all I have for now. Until we meet again, be well....Tara Miller

Divine Vintage Story Walk Thurs, Sept 11

Local author Sandra L. Young will partner with Blue Bonsai to present a guided Divine Vintage Story Walk in the Uptown Arts District.

Based on her debut novel, the healthful, enlightening event explores tie-ins to history and modern attractions that are featured in the book. The walk begins at 10 a.m. at Barker Mansion, which was the inspiration for the "Carver House" setting. The two-mile route includes rest and hydration breaks and may be walked or driven. Total time estimate is 2.5 hours. Go to SandraYoungAuthor.com for more details, cost, and to register. A discount rate is available for Senior Center members (must show membership card to receive discounted rate).

Chess Club

Why play chess? Here's some great reasons:

- 1) Easy to learn, but hard to master
- 2) Hardly any luck is involved
- 3) Chances of repeating the same game is highly unlikely
- 4) You can play chess anywhere (like here at the Senior Center for example!)
- 5) There is no age, gender, or language barrier
- 6) It's FREE to play here at the Senior Center!
- 7) No need to bring a Chess Set—we have them here
- 8) Our Chess Club meets on Fridays at 10am-12noon and everyone knows Friday is the most awesome day of the week!

So come join us as we match skills and improve our game every single week. We would love to have you! NO sign up required, just show up.

IN NEED OF A HANDYMAN TO FIX A FEW OF THE BACKS OF OUR CHAIRS. I DON'T KNOW WHAT NEEDS TO BE DONE, NOR IF THEY'RE EVEN FIXABLE. BUT IF YOU MIGHT BE WILLING TO TAKE A LOOK AT THEM AND LET ME KNOW, I WOULD MUCH APPRECIATE IT. THANKS!

Use it or Lose It

New research on the human brain shows that the brain responds well to the right kind of stimuli (both mental and physical activity). In each issue of the Golden Times (space permitting), I'm going to be sharing some exercises for your brain. I'll also give some tips I encourage you to incorporate them into your daily life and let's keep ourselves as active & healthy as we can!

Measuring Up

With paper and pencil at hand, draw the following WITHOUT MEASURING:

- A line two inches long
- A line the length of an average common straight pin
- A line the length of a new standard pencil
- A rectangle the size of a standard playing card
- A circle the size of a penny
- A circle the size of a quarter
- A line the length of your foot
- A rectangle the size of a regular postage stamp
- A circle the size of an electrical outlet.

Now compare your drawings with the actual objects to see how accurate your perceptions are.
