The topic on the agenda will be Mental Health.
Nila will contact Councilman Nelson for update on food menu.

No response from Mayor regarding open appointments.

Michigan City High School students grant winners, Nour Ashy and Derek Fowler attended the meeting and gave an update on what the scholarship award meant and what their educational plans were. Both students plan to attend PNW in the fall. Nour will be studying biology and hope to become a dermatologist. Derek will be studying business and plans to use his award to purchase books. Both hope to participate in student activities. Nour and Derek agreed to come back and give an update to where they are with their educational goals.

Commissioner Edwards would like to know of any organization in need of help and looking for volunteers. Commissioner Carter stated that she, along with her husband, has volunteered locally and in Portage. Suggestions were made to check with the YMCA and Salvation Army.

No further comments were made. Motion to adjourn the meeting by Commissioner Wilson and seconded by Commissioner Carter. All in favor. Meeting adjourned. Next meeting: September 17, 2026, 5:30pm.
